Personal horoscope interpretation

What is a personal horoscope?

Personal horoscope represents the exact position of astrological signs, planets, and other points at the moment of our birth. Through these positions, we can understand certain personality and physiological characteristics of an individual.

Personal horoscope analysis is not a tool for predicting one's future, but rather a psychological outline of one's personality, with which one can interpret life more easily. Reading your personal horoscope analysis is like looking yourself into a mirror for the first time. It is not the planets that influence us – it would be better to say that the positions of the celestial bodies reflect our personality.

You need to look at your horoscope as a whole, which you combine by studying individual parts. All the elements in one's horoscope are interrelated; only from the whole combination can you extract the right analysis for your horoscope. That is why you should read your analysis several times.

Elements of personal horoscope

Personal horoscope is a two-dimensional chart showing positions of the planets and other points on the Zodiac circle, which is made of twelve signs. The circle itself is further divided into twelve houses, defined by the Ascendant, the easternmost point at the moment of your birth. Houses represent specific areas of your life; some of the houses are filled with planets that further emphasise and colour that area. All these elements are astronomically calculated and shown on the circumference. They form certain angles to each other, and we call these angles Aspects. Some of these angles are very important for your horoscope interpretations. They can influence the positions of various astrological elements, e.g., the analysis of the planets' position in individual signs.

The most important points in personal horoscope are the Sun, the Moon, and the Ascendant, and they are given a special emphasis in the analysis. We are particularly interested in which sign and the house they are in, and all the aspects they form with other points.

For your horoscope analysis, four planets are also very important. They are called personal planets: Mercury, Venus, Mars and Jupiter, and they define individual parts of your personality. The outer planets (Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto) travel very slowly and are called generational planets. Neptune and Pluto, for example, have entire generations in the same sign, so we are not so much interested in the signs of these planets. It is all more important if the generational planets are at significant points, if they form important aspects and in which houses they are located. In addition to planets and houses, some other points are also important for personal horoscope interpretation. In this book, we analyze the following: two Arabic Parts (the Part of Spirit and the Part of Fortune), the North Knot, culminating planet, the rising planet and planets in domicile.

The Sun in personal horoscope

The position of the Sun in the sign is the most significant point in the personal horoscope of each individual. After all, it is the most prominent and most noticeable object in the sky.

The position of the Sun is what we usually call "our horoscope sign". For example, if someone's horoscope sign is Aries, this means that at the moment of birth, the Sun was situated in the Aries sign. The Sun makes its way through all 12 signs of the horoscope in one year. It stays in each sign for an average of 1 month.

The Sun in your horoscope represents your personality, your inner self, your self-awareness. Through the Sun's position, we can see how you, as an individual with your desires and needs, adapt and react to the influences of your surroundings and also how you express your inner potentials.

Sun in Scorpio

☉ 18°40' ♏

You are a determined and aggressive person. You have a very strong, firm and unshakable will. You are stubborn, ambitious, very competitive, jealous and often also revengeful and resentful. You always remember everything. Also good things, since you usually have a very noble heart. Time means a lot to you. You don't like empty, misleading words and promises; you despise all of that. Your sense of humor is pretty straightforward.

You are extremely perceptive and insightful, and you do not let other people deceive you. You have a volcanic temperament and can also have a cruel and ice-cold character. You value honesty and sincerity.

Mysterious, honest, possessive

Many times you feel as if no one understands you, because you have very high demands and expectations. You are often destructive, also self-destructive; there is something fatal, dark, or mysterious within you.

You are a possessive person; you love intensely but also hate deeply. You are extremely hard-working, persistent, reliable and responsible, with a deeply rooted sense of honesty and truth.

You have an amazing ability to recover. You are a healthy, vigorous and vital person. You often succumb to psychosomatic illnesses and problems connected to the sexual chakra. You often have many problems with power or don't know where to direct your abundant energy.

You need to develop softness, tolerance and broad-mindedness; you have to tame your destructive power and stop being so revengeful and unforgiving. You need to build faith and trust and learn to cooperate with others. You should try drinking milfoil and centaury tea, as well as mint and balm tea, to feel more at peace with yourself and others.

Sun as culminating planet

☉ [18°40']

Because the Sun is your culminating planet, you radiate a lot of positive energy and are usually good-natured and kind, even if other factors in your horoscope don't otherwise emphasize this. You have pleasant character and behavior, so people like you very much. You have a positive attitude towards work and usually achieve success in business. You are attracted to politics and are interested in manifold areas, including sport, and you can also achieve good results in numerous of these areas.

Sun opposition Moon

---

With such aspect, you are usually restless, moody and changeable, your well-being often changes and your actions to a great extent depend on how you feel – if you feel good, you have an enormous amount of energy and are very motivated and efficient, in the opposite case, you are apathetic and introverted. You are very sensitive, but you often hide this (by being cold, robust or loud). Your life seems as a continuous series of ups and downs and you are often your own worst enemy, also often in conflicts with others. This is the consequence of deeply rooted inner dissatisfaction, acquired in early youth – perhaps because of lack of understanding or love and/or such pattern (arguing or tension) was present in the family you originate from.

Moon in personal horoscope

The position of the Moon is a very important point of one's personal horoscope. In contrast to the Sun, the Moon travels much faster. It makes the entire path through 12 signs in one Moon cycle (which lasts approximately 28 days) and so changes its influence much more quickly. However, because of its size and proximity, its influence is the strongest for some individuals.

The Moon in personal horoscope presents your subconscious self, your emotions and sensations. Its position describes how you react on a subconscious and intuitive level.

Of course the Moon position acts completely differently on someone who has the Sun in Aries that on someone who has the Sun in Cancer. That is why it's important that you keep other analyses in mind when reading the horoscope and try to harmonize all of them.

Moon in Taurus

You are focused on the material. You react slowly, but strongly. You have a very good memory, which also means that you rarely forget a grudge against someone or if someone does something that is not in line with your sense of honesty and nobleness.

Before you act, you need a good and thorough consideration. You are also very careful and skeptical towards all novelties, that's why you find it very difficult to change your opinion. You are a good, hard-working, stubborn and persistent person and you put work and business above everything else. But you also love all life's pleasures, that is why you should develop caution (moderation) when it comes to eating.

Creating in peace

As a rule, you have a beautiful, pleasant, sonorous and strong voice. You love art and music, flowers and all beautiful things, you get peace from nature and forest. You should work in the garden, work with flowers, sculpture, work with soil, clay or dough. You have a talent for baking.

You like it when things happen a certain way and it is very hard to change your point of view. You often experience diseases of the throat and vocal chords, get angina and flu, you possibly also have problems with your kidneys. On the whole your health is pretty good; you have a tenacious, tough and firm constitution, unless you are a person who likes to enjoy excessively and are therefore unwieldy and prone to obesity, gluttony, grumpiness and dissatisfaction.

Moon in domicile

You are sensitive to external influences and negative vibrations from others and from the environment; your impressions are strong, so you quickly change your feelings and others sometimes find you moody and you are not understood. If you are in good mood, you are very funny, fun, pleasant, compassionate and warm, if you are in a bad mood, it is clear that everyone around you feel bad. You are usually prone to enjoying family happiness in a calm home environment, but you also love travelling.

Moon square Mars

☾ ☐ ♂ [5°7']

---

You are usually a fast, restless and impulsive person. For you, everything is happening too slowly, because you tend to act (too)fast and also to speed up events, which sometimes leads to having conflicts with others. You have a lot of energy, which you know how to direct and use well. You have a very passionate nature and are often involved in dramatic relationships, sometimes also colored with violence (if other aspects or positions also indicate this). You are combative and competitive, have an eager and impetuous character, that is why others sometimes hardly keep up with your tempo and they find you difficult. It is useful and advisable for you to be involved in any kind of sport.

Moon inconjunct Saturn

☾ ♄ ♄ [1°25']

You are usually more reserved and shy and you can seem cold and unreachable, so people don't always feel the most relaxed in your company. Unfortunately, you actually don't always relax in company; you often have a bad self-image and are too involved with worries and fears, also with opinions of others, so you often somehow stiffen in an emotional sense. It is important that you also acknowledge your emotional part and in it, nurture relaxation and acceptance.

Moon square Neptune

☾ ☐ ♆ [3°8']

You are very sensitive and emotional. You have vivid imagination and like to indulge in daydreaming, sometimes you are prone to laziness, that is why you don't always take advantage of your potentials. When problems occur, you often withdraw into your own world and sometimes don't want to face reality. You don't see others completely clearly nor yourself in relationships with them, that is why you need a lot of time for yourself to process emotional impressions. You need mild encouragement and guidance, you don't take criticism well. Sometimes you are prone to addictions (especially if other aspects and positions also indicate this). It is very advisable for you to artistically create, especially in music and painting, contact with earth or nurturing being grounded and (self)realization is also useful.

Ascendant (1st house) in personal horoscope

Ascendant (shortened ASC) is basically the axis of the 1st house and is one of the three most important points of personal horoscope. It represents the most eastern point at the moment of our birth and the sign in which it appears is called »the rising sign«. If somebody, for example, is born exactly at sunrise, it means that the Sun and the Ascendant are in the same sign.

Ascendant is a very accurate point of personal horoscope and its position strongly influences all other elements of the horoscope. It is accurate, because it stays in one sign only for about two hours and makes the entire circle through the zodiac in one day. Therefore, even twins, despite born in short time intervals, can have different Ascendant position.

Ascendant represents your looks, your personality, presence, beginnings of your achievements, your individuality and way of expression – the way you dress, talk, walk, etc. It indicates the way you let or want others to see and perceive you. It also indicates your birth, it represents your body, health, in what way you start acting and tackle challenges, what your basic outlook and approach to life is. It shows your basic essence. It is similar to the Sun, but the Ascendant represents your karmic mission, the cohesive thread, the test you need to solve in this life.

1st house in Capricorn

10°23' 15"

You are predictable, meticulous and hard-working, you had to learn responsibility early in life. You usually look older than you actually are when you are young, but as years go by, you acquire charm and act and look more and more younger.

You are extremely ambitious, your actions are directed to acquiring material goods and you always need to focus on definite goals. You are persistent and patient, you can't be distracted and you don't deviate from the preordained path.

Serious, strict, respect for tradition and elders

You take everything very seriously, you rarely let go to sentimental feelings and you in general have a pretty reserved and cold nature. Looks, status and power mean a lot to you and often you submit your whole life, behavior and looks to fulfilling ambitions in this area.

You are a dignified and well-mannered person; traditional values, gained in your early youth, strongly influence your life and social habits. And these, deeply rooted mind maps, cause that you often act too biased, your actions are blinded by the belief that you are always completely right; so you are sometimes difficult to get along with and to make compromises with.

You like order and discipline, with you everything has a precisely defined space and purpose. You don't leave anything to coincidence and you always trust only yourself. With persistent work and great exertions you always achieve success. And if you succeed to overcome your exaggerated desire and need for material assurance, you can in your later life period (this Ascendant usually indicates a long life) develop a high spiritual consciousness.

Planets in the personal horoscope

The positions of Mercury, Venus, Mars and Jupiter are also important in the personal horoscope of each individual. The outer planets - Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto - travel very slowly and are called generational planets. E.g., entire generations have Neptune and Pluto in the same sign. This means that the outer planets are important for the personal horoscope when they are positioned at important points, form important aspects, or we're usually mostly interested in which houses they appear in.

Aspects are another important element of every personal horoscope. Aspects are angles between planets and the more accurate they are, the more accurate the mutual influence of the two planets is.

Mercury in personal horoscope

Astrological houses in personal horoscope

What are astrological houses

Astrological houses divide the personal horoscope into twelve parts – twelve areas of your life. The houses in personal horoscope are based on the position of the Ascendant, which is the most eastern point at the moment of your birth. The Ascendant also represents the axis of the first house and is one of the most important points in personal horoscope of every individual.

The first house starts in the sign where your Ascendant is, all the next houses then follow in other signs (each house has approximately 30 degrees). Each personal horoscope has all 12 houses, but not all houses are occupied – there are 12 houses, but only 10 planets, therefore even more houses can be completely empty.

Planets in houses

The planets in the houses are actually more important than the houses in signs. If a planet appears in a house, it means that the area that this house represents is important for you. The more planets you have in one house, the more this house is important for you.

First house or Ascendant (ASC)

House of Aries, ruled by Mars

The first house represents your looks, your personality, your presence, beginnings of your achievements, your individuality and way of expression – the way you dress, talk, walk, etc. It indicates the way you let or want others to see and perceive you. It also indicates your birth, it represents your body, health, in what way you start acting and tackle challenges, what your basic outlook and approach to life is.

10°23' 15"

You like order and discipline, with you everything has a precisely defined space and purpose. You don't leave anything to coincidence and you always trust only yourself. With persistent work and great exertions you always achieve success. And if you succeed to overcome your exaggerated desire and need for material assurance, you can in your later life period (this Ascendant usually indicates a long life) develop a high spiritual consciousness.
